

Nard Choi and Jordan Hattar for International Officers!

Nard has lived on a temporary visa in various countries for the past 25 years, so she knows a little bit about what it's like to be an international resident ☺ In terms of the UK, she's gone through the visa application process 4 times (even got denied once!), so she's quite familiar with how it can be a harrowing and stressful undertaking. However, she's always received a lot of help from the Cambridge admissions team and she would be happy to help current and future international members of Trinity Hall get connected with these sources of support. Getting everything together for moving and settling into the UK can get overwhelming, but there are so many networks of support for international students at Cambridge. It's usually just a matter of knowing who to turn to, and she hopes she can do her part as an International Officer.

As international officer, Jordan will bring a humanitarian view to our MCR-- bringing our college closer to the refugee crisis that has engulfed our world. Jordan will do this by organizing lectures/workshops about Syria's humanitarian crisis.
